

Radiophoto Transmission from Viet Nam by AP (Lots 73-83)

073 (2 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970 - 71. U.S.S. - Canberra fires its main battery in the Gulf of Tonkin at North Vietnam Forces. Its guns have a range of 40kms. April 4, 1967 (AP Wire photo/U.S. Navy) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

073 (a)

Lot 073 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. Sequence of 3 photographs released by the U.S. Air Force showing an attack on a North Vietnamese MIG fighter plane equipped with a 20mm gun. Northeast of Hanoi, June 10, 1967 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper. (AP) £ 50

074 (a)

Lot 074 also includes:

(a) Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - A Wounded Meo guerrilla soldier walks on crutches toward a military hospital at Sam Thong, Southwest of the Plain of Jars in Laos, Feb. 22, 1970 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

(b) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - U.S. Army helicopter brings in supplies to the Special Forces camp at Kham Duc, South Vietnam. Troops of the U. S. Americal Division reopened the base to support operations near the Laotian border. The wreckage is of a C130. July 28, 1970 (AP Wirephoto/ Brummett) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP) £ 75

1968, two weeks before the massacre. 1969 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

075 (a)

Lot 075 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - A large crimson flag with a single gold star commands the skyline at the northern end of the Ben Hai Bridge, connecting North and South Vietnam, at the 17th Parallel, across the Ben Hai River. Feb 25, 1970 (AP Wirephoto/Daniel de Luce) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

074

074 (3 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. -- A Mountain tribe woman with the U.S. Special Forces, collects wood. She weighs 36 kg and carries a load of 27 kg. Near the Laotian border, Dec.10, 1969 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

075

075 (3 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. -- This photo, showing a heavily armed Viet Cong group was published in the Dec. 16 edition of the Columbus, Ga, Inquirer. The newspaper said it obtained the photo from an army intelligence source at Fort Benning, Ga. The source said it was taken from film captured during a patrol near My Lai in early March

074 (a)

(b) -Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - The caption for this radiophoto sent from Hanoi to Warsaw, Poland, says it shows "the Lao People's Liberation army is ready to wipe out the aggressors and turn the liberated zone into a graveyard for the U.S. and its henchmen." Feb.9, 1971 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper. (AP) £ 75

076 (2 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - During a press conference in Paris, with French writer Jean Paul Sartre, a young Vietnamese woman recounts that her village of Binh Chau, Quang Ngai province in Vietnam, was destroyed by U.S. soldiers on January 13, 1969, with 300 people massacred. 1969 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper. " AP)

PH-479 PARIS, Diciembre 29 (UPI)-Phan Thi Lieu, de 21 años, derecha, en conferencia de prensa en París solicitada por el Centro Internacional de Información para la Justicia de Crímenes de Guerra, con el escritor francés Jean-Paul Sartre, a la izquierda. La joven (hija que su abuela de Binh Chau, en la provincia de Quang Ngai, Vietnam, fue destruida por soldados norteamericanos el 23 de enero de 1965, su 300 hermanas fueron víctimas de una matanza. (AP/Wirephoto desde París) 1969

076 (a)

Lot 076 also includes:

(a) -Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - Vietnamese students carrying hand grenades taken from police during anti-government demonstrations in Saigon crouch behind a makeshift barricade one block from the U.S. Embassy. June 15, 1970 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP) £ 50

PH-479 PARIS, Diciembre 29 (UPI)-Phan Thi Lieu, de 21 años, derecha, en conferencia de prensa en París solicitada por el Centro Internacional de Información para la Justicia de Crímenes de Guerra, con el escritor francés Jean-Paul Sartre, a la izquierda. La joven (hija que su abuela de Binh Chau, en la provincia de Quang Ngai, Vietnam, fue destruida por soldados norteamericanos el 23 de enero de 1965, su 300 hermanas fueron víctimas de una matanza. (AP/Wirephoto desde París) 1969

077

077 (3 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. -- This hilltop west of Hue is "Firebase Kathryn" manned by 101st Airborne Division troops. The area was the scene of more enemy action. The bases are intended to stem enemy infiltration into coastal lowlands. The hill's steep sides are fortified with barbed wire and mines. Aug. 18, 1970 (AP Wirephoto/ Putzel) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

Lot 077 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - South Vietnamese soldiers take a siesta atop 17th century cannons in the Citadel of Hue, the former imperial capital of Vietnam. Part of the Citadel serves as a military camp. Sept. 22, 1970 (AP Wirephoto/ Huet) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP) (b) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - A battalion commander in the U.S. Americal Division collects grenades, like the one this GI is throwing at the enemy near Cu Chi, from his troops to prevent "fragging" -- an attack by a GI using a fragmentation grenade. Jan.7, 1971 (AP Wirephoto) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

£ 75

PH-479 PARIS, Diciembre 29 (UPI)-Phan Thi Lieu, de 21 años, derecha, en conferencia de prensa en París solicitada por el Centro Internacional de Información para la Justicia de Crímenes de Guerra, con el escritor francés Jean-Paul Sartre, a la izquierda. La joven (hija que su abuela de Binh Chau, en la provincia de Quang Ngai, Vietnam, fue destruida por soldados norteamericanos el 23 de enero de 1965, su 300 hermanas fueron víctimas de una matanza. (AP/Wirephoto desde París) 1969

078

078 (2 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. Montagnard Tribes - A Montagnard mother and her daughter during a ceremony marking the graduation of local officials from a training course. The Montagnard tribes live on the high plateau near Pleiku in the Central Highlands Dec.1, 1970 (APWirephoto/NickUt) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper. (AP)

Lot 078 also includes:

(a) 86 - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. -- Two U.S. soldiers erect warning sign forbidding the border crossing of South Vietnam into Laos. Bulldozer clears brush in background, near abandoned Special Forces camp of Lang Vei. Feb.5, 1971 (AP Wirephoto/ Huet) 10" x 12" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

£ 50

079 (3 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. July 21, 1970 -- Gunpoint capture: A north Vietnamese soldier raises his arms surrendering at the point of the gun of a SVN soldier. He was captured in the Vinh Huy valley, 20 miles NW of Tam Ky. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

Lot 079 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - Aug.8, 1970. Nguyen Van Thieu pauses to photograph artillery at Fire Base Barbara, 30 miles west of Hue. (Mike Putzel/AP) 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

(b) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. Ngoc An, January 22, 1967. --A SVN soldier beats Viet Cong suspects during the search for French woman Michelle Ray in the Bong Son area. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper .(AP)

£ 75

(AP)-Aug.8 --NGUYEN VAN THIEU, President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam pauses to photograph an artillery site at Fire Base Barbara, 30 miles west of Hue, during tour of South Vietnam's five northernmost provinces.(AP Wirephoto)(gdn702194tr/putzel)1970

079 (a)

(SAT-3) NGOC AN, VIETNAM DEL SURENERO 22 (AP) UN SOLDADO VIETNAMITA AMENAZA A DOS SUSPECTOS DE VIETCONG CON UNA LARGA VARA, DELANTE EL INTERROGATORIO POR LA SEPARACION DE LA PERIODISTA FRANCESA MICHELLE RAY - EN LA VILLA XUC AN CERCA DE HONG SON-LAS SUSPECTAS USINAS QUE LE HABIAN VISTO EL MARTEL PALADO CUANDO ERA CONDUCTA POR EL VIETCONG (AP WIREPHOTO) 1967

079 (b)

080

080 - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. Dec.26, 1969. --Blindfolded POWs are led by SVN soldiers to a helicopter after a firefight near Danang. (AP/Khiem) 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

£ 40

080 (a)

Lot 080 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - Khe Sanh, May 2, 1967. US Marines launch an attack at their perimeter of the base near Laos and the DMZ. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

£ 50

081 (b)

19710-JAN-5-VIET CONG FILM SHOWS CAPTURED U.S. SOLDIERS--The Columbia Broadcasting System showed Monday night television film obtained from the Viet Cong and depicting the capture of some U.S. soldiers at Con Thien in October, 1968. These photos, from CBS, show soldiers surrendering and marching in a line through the jungle.(AP Wirephoto) (See AP AKA wire story)jc30608cbs) 1971.

083 (a)

Lot 083 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. Fedb.18, 1971. USAF handout showing destroyed trucks on the Ho Chi Minh trail. Photo taken during February 1971. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

£ 50

081

081 (3 photos) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. Hanoi, January 24, 1967- President Ho Chi Minh greets a group of westerners: From left: Rabbi Abraham L. Feinberg (Toronto), Rev. A.J. Muste (New York), Rev. Ambrose Reeves, bishop of Chichester, England). 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

081 (a)

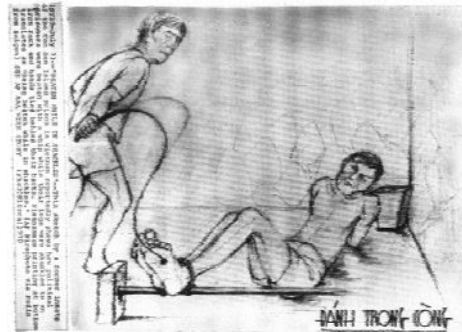

Lot 081 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. North Vietnam, 1967. This photo was taken by Bill Baggs of the Miami News, who was in Hanoi to report on US airstrikes. The scene shows Vietnamese extinguishing fires in a bombed area in an unid. City. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper. (AP)

(b) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. Jan.5, 1971. CBS showed film obtained from the Viet Cong showing the capture of US soldiers at Con Thien, SVN, in October 1968. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

£ 90

082 - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. - July 7, 1970: A drawing by a former inmate of the "Tiger Cages" prison on Con Son Island. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

082 (b)

082 also includes:

(a) - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71. July 7, 1970: A drawing by a former inmate of the "Tiger Cages" prison on Con Son Island. Drawing shows how prisoners were shackled and beaten. 88" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

£ 50

083 - Print from an original AP RADIOPHOTO negative received from Saigon and archived by a news agency in Lima, Peru, during 1970-71.- Feb.18, 1971. 3 scenes of South Vietnamese soldiers operating in Laos and inside Cambodia. 8" x 10" digital print on Kodak Portra paper.(AP)

Notes: